Dear Mr. Edison:

Another few weeks and Mrs. Schulman and I will visit St. Louis as part of the Coin Convention.

At your last visit you asked me to make an additional selection of primitive monies, subject to two conditions:

1. Low priced, below the regular retail, and not any pieces of high value
2. Not represented before

I waited till our July auction and I selected a few of the 170 different lots. These few went below retail, were inexpensive, and of importance - and not represented in your collection.

I am sure I did the proper thing, but if you have any more questions, call me at the Chase Hotel on Monday, August 17 and I'll come to say "hello". You can, however, rely on the package being "OK".

Yours sincerely,

HANS M. F. SCHULMAN
